MEMORIAL DAY.

How the Living Honored the Memory of the Dead.

Monday morning dawned with a genial sunshine and a bright clear sky, with just breeze enough to prevent the heat from being oppressive. Early in the day teams came in from all directions, bringing people to witness and participate in the memorial services, among whom were many ex-Confederate soldiers. At the appointed hour, 2 o'clock P. M., the procession was formed at the Court House square by Chief Marshal Brown and his assistant marshals, and proceeded up Liberty street in the following order:

Salem Band, led by Capt. D. T. Crouse, drawn by six magnificent horses, five white and one iron gray, bridles and harness gaily festooned with flowers, ex-Sheriff Fogle holding the ribbons.

Two hundred and fifty ex-Confederate soldiers marching in column of twos.

Winston Rifles, marching in column of fours, under command of Capt. Gray. Winston and Salem Fire Companies, in full uniform.

Carriage, drawn by four spanking bays, driven by Bob McArthur, containing the Mayors of Winston and Salem, Rev. Dr. Rondthaler and Col. L. L. Polk, the orator of the day.

Carriages, containing ladies and children, and after these, citizens on foot.

At the corner of 5th street the procession turned, moving on to Cherry street, down that to New Shallow Ford street in Salem, thence down Main street around the public square, where a halt was made in front of the Academy, and the band struck up Dixie, thence up Front to Depot street and on to the Winston Cemetery.

After decorating the graves and firing a salute in honor of the dead the procession re-formed in the order of march, moved on to Main street, and to Brown's Opera House, arriving about half-past 4 o'clock. The house, which has a seating capacity of about a thousand, was crowded but not uncomfortably so, owing to the commendable forethought of the marshals, who provided extra seats and saw that all that were comfortable. By the time the band had finished a beautiful introductory, every one was seated and the most perfect order prevailed.

On the stage were seated the Hon. T. J. Wilson, Mayor of Winston; C. H. Fogle, Mayor of Salem; Rev. Dr. Edward Rondthaler, pastor of the Moravian church in Salem; Rev. F. H. Johnston, pastor of the Presbyterian church in Winston; Hon. C. B. Watson, J. C. Buxton, Chief Marshal Col. T. J. Brown, Capt. M. W. Norfleet, Capt. Taylor, of Danbury, and Col. L. L. Polk, the Speaker.

The services were opened by Rev. Dr. Rondthaler in an impressive and eloquent prayer, in which he paid touching tribute to the dead for the devotion they had shown to duty, and thanked God for the example they had set the living for all time, in shrinking not from duty even at the cost of trials, privations, suffering and death itself, and he thanked God, too, that these heroic Southerners were Americans of whom all Americans could be proud. No more might Americans shed each other's blood, but a united people move on together, perpetual peace reigning from Snow Cliff to Gulf, from Ocean to Ocean, till the Kingdoms of the earth are no more.

Hon. C. B. Watson then after a pleasant, humorous little talk, in which he recalled reminiscences of camp life in the days that tried mens souls (when the skillet was a mighty factor) introduced Col. L. L. Polk, who followed in a brief address to which the audience listened with profound attention and seemed to be pleased. At the conclusion of his address the band struck up Dixie which never fails to call for responsive echoes among the boys who wore the gray.

The services were closed with benediction by Rev. Dr. Rondthaler and the band gave as a farewell piece the Old North State, and thus ended Memorial day in Winston and Salem—an occasion long to be remembered by those who witnessed or participated in it. The best of order prevailed from beginning to end and no incident nor accident occurred to mar the harmony, solemnity nor beauty of the occasion.

A number of farmers set out their tobacco plants within the past week.

Messrs. Clark & Ford are building nine frame tenement houses in a block in the north-eastern suburbs of the city.

The pear trees and cherry trees in the gardens about town are showing an abundance of young fruit.

CLOSING EXERCISES.—The city Graded School closed its term with graduating exercises last Thursday. After introductory remarks by Prof. Tomlinson, the class exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. Calvin H. Wiley, which was followed by addresses from James K. Norfleet, James W. Wiley, poem by Miss Annie Wiley, essays by Miss Mamie Martin and Wm. C. Masten, all of which were very creditable. Prof. W. A. Blair, of John's Hopkins University, then delivered an interesting and eloquent address at the conclusion of which Rev. Wiley Dr. awarded diplomas to the members of the class. Mr. J. C. Buxton, with appropriate remarks, delivered the medals for scholarship, James K. Norfleet receiving the medal as first in the class among the boys. It baffled the Professors to decide between Misses Minnie Ogburn and Ada Roan, and a medal was awarded to each of these young ladies. Miss Maud Broadway was presented with a book as a reward for accuracy in keeping a registry. The following are graduating class: Misses Annie Barham, Maud Broadway, Nellie Grogan, Minnie Grogan, Mamie Martin, Minnie Ogburn, Ada Roan, Julia Roan, Ada Thornburg, Lola White, Isabel Warner, Annie Wiley, Thomas Crawford, James Norfleet, Will Mastin, James W. Wiley.

THE PROGRESSIVE FARMER returns thanks for a kind invitation to attend the closing exercises of the school at Farmington, Davie county, on the 20th inst. We hear the school, which is under the management of Mr. S. M. Finch, spoken of in the highest terms.

Also for an invitation to be present at Mt. Vernon Springs Academy, Chatham county, May 27th. The annual address is to be delivered by Rev. C. T. Bailey, of Raleigh. We congratulate the school and its management on securing the services of Dr. Bailey, and the otherwise attractive programme, which is presented for the entertainment of the public.

A LIVELY RACKET.—Paine, the "Indian Doctor," had a big racket of his own Wednesday. He was arrested for setting his dog on a boy, and for a row with another party, in which he used a rock as a weapon offensive. At his request the officers who arrested him escorted him to his place of lodging, when he declined to go to jail and drew a pistol upon the officer, who was just in the act of drawing trigger on him, when the Sheriff called to the officer not to shoot. By main force he was taken to jail, where he raised such a rumpus, and yelled so lustily, that it was found necessary to chain and gag him. In the meantime the street was blocked with a crowd of negroes apparently in sympathy with the "Doctor," and as a precaution, in case of emergency, the Forsyth Riflemen were ordered to the armory, which adjoins the jail, to be ready for duty. There was no demonstration, however, the negroes dispersing late in the evening. On the following day the billicose prisoner, subdued in spirit and somewhat exhausted from his physical and vocal exercises, was brought before Justices Grogan and Hamlin on four charges: for setting his dogs on Charlie Pettis, for which he was fined $2.00; for drawing a knife on Chief of Police Bradford, of which he was acquitted; for his assault on Geo. Moore with a rock, which called for a bond of $50, and for resisting and drawing a pistol on Deputy Sheriff Johnston, which called for bond of $100. Failing to give either he went back to jail to await the action of Superior Court. The medicine man had been loading too much corn juice.

—The single ladies belonging to Moravian Congregation in Salem celebrated their annual lovefeast on Sunday.

—A supper for the benefit of Union Ridge (Cinard's old stand) Methodist Church will be given in the church on Friday night.

—Mr. G. C. Joyce and family, for some years residents of Winston, left today for Kingsville, Canada, where they will take up their residence.

—The Baptist Sunday school reported Sunday (the 2nd inst.) $150 subscribed and collected for the benefit of the new Baptist Church on Broad street.

—At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen Monday night D. H. Starbuck and A. B. Gorrell were elected Graded School commissioners in place of S. A. Ogburn and R. B. Kerner. W. F. Foltz was elected City Tax Collector in place of J. C. Bessent. N. Dowdy, policeman in place of J. A. Maroney. The commission of tax collector was reduced from 5 to 3 per cent.

—Louis M. Patterson, aged twenty-four, died of consumption at his home in Salem Sunday morning. For some years he was engaged in the profession of teaching, which he relinquished to take a special course of studies in the University of Virginia, but his health failing he returned home a short while ago, where all that physicians' skill could do for him was done. He sank quietly to rest Sunday morning. His remains were removed Monday for interment at the old Patterson homestead in Caldwell county.

Winston Tobacco Market.

SOMETHING FOR EVERYBODY!

Premiums to the Workers!

FOR THE FARMERS, FOR THE LADIES, FOR THE BOYS AND FOR THE GIRLS.

THE PROGRESSIVE FARMER is a live, and as its name indicates, a progressive paper, devoted to the interests of the farmers of North Carolina, and will be filled each week with twenty-five columns of reading matter, editorial, correspondence from leading farmers and others, farm notes for the farmer, household receipts for the housekeeper, stories for young and old, miscellaneous matter, mirth, wit, &c., for all.

It will be kept up to the full standard of modern agricultural journalism. We propose to make it a paper that North Carolina farmers may not only read with profit, but one of which they may be proud.

We hope in the near future to see it become a weekly visitor in the households of thousands of farmers.

In this work we have the sympathies and good wishes of many friends, who send us cheering words and write us encouraging letters, all of which we appreciate.

We want our friends to help us extend the circulation of this paper. We do not expect nor ask them to give us their time for nothing, and accordingly we offer as compensation for the service that may be rendered us in securing clubs of subscribers for one year, the following embracing articles of real value to the farmer, to the farmer's wife, to the boy and to the girl.

There is no chance work, no prize lottery business, in this, and no Cheap John goods are offered.

Every one who works for us is sure of getting either one of the premiums offered, and everything offered is guaranteed by us and by the responsible parties who supply them as being up to the standard and of full value as represented.

The premiums will be securely packed, addressed to the getters up of clubs and placed on the cars at Winston free of cost.

Clubs of over sixteen may be divided between two or more post offices, but clubs of sixteen or under must be addressed to one post office.

The offer of this premium list will hold good for three months, that is to the first of June next. Now here is a chance for active men, good women, boys and girls, to help us extend the circulation of THE PROGRESSIVE FARMER, get a substantial and valuable premium, and benefit themselves.

The receipt of lists for clubs will be duly acknowledged in our columns from week to week.

If you don't want any of the premiums send us six subscribers and get your own copy free.

Without a Dollar you may get one of J. P. Nissen's celebrated Two-horse Wagons.

For a Club of 200 yearly subscribers sent to us with the CASH, by the 1st of September next, we will give a J. P. NISSEN WAGON, two-horse, medium, complete with cover, worth $80.00.

To the one who shall send us the largest number of subscribers over 200, we will give a Wagon and a splendid double sett of Hand Made Harness complete, Bridles, Collars and Reins, worth $95.00.
